DEEPDENE TRAIL'S EASTER EGG ADVENTURE IS A TRIUMPH!

The Deepdene Trail have reported an “EGGSTRA’ special response to their Easter activity

This Easter weekend, The Deepdene Trail’s special event saw over 700 people explore The Trail. Visitors of all ages walked the paths and spotted the specially crafted Easter eggs to crack Coady the lion’s code - releasing Easter chocolate treats.

Those that completed The Trail collected their prizes from Dorking Halls. Keith Garrow, Manager at Dorking Halls said, “We welcomed many families in to collect the children’s prizes over the weekend. We are now working with the Deepdene Trail selling tickets for their outdoor Shakespeare weekend on the 17th and 18th June. These tickets can be purchase online at www.dorkinghalls.co.uk and in person by visiting our Box Office.”

Paul Anderson, Corporate Head of Service said, “We are delighted that over 10,500 people have enjoyed The Trail since it opened last September. Special events like this Easter one encourage more people to come along and experience the whole Trail. It is a very special time of year in the gardens right now as the rhododendrons are flowering, so, if you haven’t visited yet do go along and enjoy in the next few weeks.”
