

News Release

1 October 2009

Mole Valley's Arts Alive 2009 Celebration Night 2009 With John Gordon Sinclair

Following a wonderful month of dance, drama, music, poetry, arts and crafts and more, Mole Valley's Arts Alive Festival 2009 closes with a final night starring local actor and festival patron John Gordon Sinclair. This special event takes place at Leatherhead Theatre on Monday 2 November, 7.30pm and will feature highlights from the festival, including a performance from the Freewheelers Theatre Company, Milestones Big Band, Phoenix Creative Arts, Pandemonium Steel Pan group and many other local arts groups. John Gordon Sinclair will also be on hand to answer audience questions.

Jean Pearson, Leader of the Council, said "The Arts Alive Festival is a great asset to the community and this final night of celebration promises to be a fun-filled event. The aim of the evening is to raise funds for both Arts Alive and Leatherhead Theatre which are two good local causes worthy of support."

The Arts Alive festival organisers are especially grateful to global engineering company KBR, who as one of the largest employers in Mole Valley has sponsored Arts Alive for twelve consecutive years and Aerospace Logistics who are continuing their support for a third year.

The Arts Alive festival is organised by Mole Valley District Council's Leisure Development Department. For full listings visit www.arts-alive.co.uk. Brochures are available from local libraries, Leatherhead Help shop, Dorking Halls and the Leatherhead Theatre or by telephoning 01306 879188.